Writing Center

The Writing Center offers several forms of writing support that are free and available to all APU students:

- In-Person Appointments: At any stage of the writing process, graduate and professional students can meet with a writing coach and receive individualized support to improve their writing projects and, more importantly, their writing skills. Learn more here about how to schedule an appointment.

- Online Appointments: Graduate and professional students can work with a writing coach online. During online appointments here, students and writing coaches use video or chat and a mutual whiteboard space to work together in real time. Students pursuing their doctorate can also work with a doctoral consultant online.

- Walk-in Hours: The Writing Center offers walk-in hours, during which students can work with available writing coaches individually or in groups. Students can also use this space to work independently in a supportive environment where they can ask questions as needed. View the current walk-in hours and location here.

- Graduate Writing Website: APU’s Writing Center maintains a Graduate Writing website here dedicated to demystifying the challenges of writing at the graduate level, building community among APU writers, and making the dissertation process as smooth and painless as possible.

- Workshops: The Writing Center provides several workshops here specifically for graduate students. Join us for discussions and practical guidance on topics including becoming a productive writer, scheduling major writing projects, and revision. Workshop dates are listed on our calendar here.

- Resources: Stop by any of the locations or visit our website’s Resources page here for handouts on more than 35 writing challenges ranging from brainstorming to documentation.
