Pupil Personnel Services: School Counseling Credential

For more information: (626) 815-5424

Prerequisite: Educational Specialist in School Psychology with Embedded Master of Arts in Education: Educational Psychology and Pupil Personnel Services Credential in School Psychology (http://catalog.apu.edu/graduateprofessional/education/school-counseling-psychology/educational-psychology-maed-education-specialist-eds-school-psychology-embedded-pupil-personnel-services-credential-school-psychology-ma)

A required transcript evaluation of students’ current PPS school psychology courses will determine which courses will count toward the PPS: School Counseling Credential.

Requirements are the same as for Azusa Pacific University’s Master of Arts in Education: Educational Counseling with Embedded Pupil Personnel Services Credential in School Counseling (http://catalog.apu.edu/graduateprofessional/education/school-counseling-psychology/educational-counseling-embedded-school-counseling-credential-ma) program.