Requirements are the same as for Azusa Pacific University's Master of Arts in Education: Educational Psychology and Educational Specialist Degree in School Psychology with Embedded Pupil Personnel Services Credential in School Psychology (http://catalog.apu.edu/graduateprofessional/education/school-counseling-psychology/educational-psychology-maed-education-specialist-eds-school-psychology-embedded-pupil-personnel-services-credential-school-psychology-ma) program, with the exception that no graduate research project is required.

Students must pass the PRAXIS II (School Psychology) Exam with a score of 147 or greater. Credential-only candidates may be eligible to become a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP); candidates are advised to contact the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) certification board (http://www.nasponline.org/CERTIFICATION) to determine if their degrees meet NCSP requirements.
