

Living-Learning Communities (LLC) and Learning Communities (LC)

APU offers Living-Learning Communities (LLCs) and Learning Communities (LCs) (<https://www.apu.edu/academic-success/first-year-experience/living-learning/>). In both types of communities, a cohort of students takes two or more courses together in a given academic year, and for LLCs the students are also assigned living arrangements in the same hall or floor of an on-campus dormitory.

Here are the communities being offered:

- Criminal Justice Learning Community
- Kinesiology Learning Community
- Kinesiology Living-Learning Community
- Psychology Learning Community
- Psychology Living-Learning Community
- Psychology Learning Community for Transfer Students
- STEM (Math, Physics, Engineering, or Computer Science) Learning Community
