

Campus Life

The Office of Campus Life (<https://www.apu.edu/campus-life/>) offers purposeful programming to help students develop a sense of belonging and personal growth throughout their APU experience.

Office Values

- Intentional Connection: Belonging grounds your pursuit toward who you are becoming
- Self-Development: Unlock and embrace your full potential
- Diverse Opportunities: An invitation to explore and discover your interests

Mission Statement

Create meaningful experiences.

Fulfilling Our Mission

Campus Life fulfills its mission through the following:

- Alpha Program: (<https://www.apu.edu/campus-life/alpha-program/>) Supporting students' sense of belonging in their first year at APU through the Alpha Program orientation groups for first-year and transfer students.
- Campus Events: (<https://www.apu.edu/campus-life/events/>) Campus-wide engagement opportunities to foster a sense of community.
- Campus Recreation: (<https://www.apu.edu/campus-life/recreation/>) Coordinating physical and electronic sports throughout the academic year.
- Clubs and Organizations: (<https://www.apu.edu/campus-life/clubs/>) Supporting student-managed groups, including performing arts clubs, social clubs, service organizations, academic clubs, honors societies, and club sports. Azusa Pacific University does not allow or recognize national social clubs, fraternities, or sororities.

Welcome Weekend

The Office of Campus Life hosts Welcome Weekend (<https://www.apu.edu/welcome-weekend/>) at the beginning of each fall and spring semester to welcome new APU students into the community. Welcome Weekend provides an experience that fosters a sense of belonging for new students, families, and guests through intentional programming centered on preparing each student for their time at Azusa Pacific University.
