

Minor in Adapted Physical Activity

18 units

The adapted physical activity minor provides undergraduate students with education and experience working with individuals with disabilities. Students learn how to modify and adapt skills and activities to promote a lifetime of physical activity and wellness, and gain valuable experiences while preparing for a career in occupational therapy, physical therapy, physical education, special education, or adapted physical education. This program also serves as excellent preparation for APU's teaching credential and Adapted Physical Education Added Authorization (<http://catalog.apu.edu/academics/school-behavioral-applied-sciences/kinesiology/adapted-physical-education-added-authorization/>) to gain a competitive advantage in the job market.
