

Administrative Withdrawal

Nonenrollment for a period of three consecutive terms (e.g., fall, spring, and summer) will result in administrative withdrawal from the university. See the Academic Calendars (<https://www.apu.edu/calendar/academic/>) for complete term and session information. An administrative withdrawal does not change a student's posted grades or account balance; neither does it generate a refund of any kind. Reapplication and department reacceptance are required to enroll again. Students who are reaccepted will be held to the current catalog requirements, which may entail additional degree requirements. The initial enrollment in the degree program will determine the beginning of the time limit for completing the degree, where the length of the time limit (<http://catalog.apu.edu/policies-procedures/graduate/graduation-requirements-commencement/normal-progress-toward-time-limit-degree/>) is determined by the current catalog. In rare instances, extensions may be requested by petition. Granting of such a petition may entail additional degree requirements and/or repeating of courses that have expired.
