

Title IX

Azusa Pacific University is committed to providing a learning, working, and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect in an environment free of discrimination on the basis of sex, which includes all forms of sexual misconduct. Sex discrimination violates an individual's fundamental rights and personal dignity. APU considers sex discrimination in all its forms to be a serious offense. The university's Title IX policy refers to all forms of sex discrimination, including, but not limited to, sexual harassment, sexual assault, and sexual violence by employees, students, or third parties.

For more information including how to report situations and what resources are available to you, and to review the full Title IX and Other Sexual Misconduct policy, please visit the APU Title IX (<https://www.apu.edu/titleix/>) page.
