

Writing Center

The APU Writing Center offers several forms of writing support that are free and available to all APU students:

- In-Person Appointments: Students may meet with writing coaches at any stage of the writing process and receive individualized support to improve their writing projects and their long-term writing skills. Schedule an appointment (<https://sites.google.com/apu.edu/tutoring/appointment-help/how-to-schedule-appointments/>), or visit the APU Writing Center website (<https://www.apu.edu/writingcenter/>) to learn more about us and our services.
- Online Appointments: During online appointments, students and writing coaches use Zoom and a mutual whiteboard space or shared screen to work together in real time.
- Drop-In Hours: The center offers drop-in hours, where students meet with writing coaches individually or in groups. View the current drop-in hours and location. (<https://sites.google.com/apu.edu/tutoring/drop-ins/>)
- Workshops: The Writing Center provides several workshops throughout the year for students, and we invite you to join us for discussions and practical guidance on writing-related topics. Workshop dates are listed on our calendar (<https://www.apu.edu/writingcenter/calendar/>). Faculty may request classroom workshops by using our Writing Center Service Request Form (https://formstack.apu.edu/forms/writing_center_service_request_form/).
- Resources: Our Google site (<https://sites.google.com/apu.edu/tutoring/writing-resources/>) houses PDF resources on more than 35 writing challenges ranging from brainstorming to documentation.
- Speaking Center Appointments: Students may meet with speaking coaches and receive individualized support to improve their speaking projects and presentation assignments.

Locations

APU's Writing Center is open year-round, excluding holidays and university closures, and has locations in Marshburn Library (East Campus), Segerstrom Science Center (West Campus), and online.
